Louis James Manville

~~December 19, 1921–November 23, 2009~~

To my Dad who, even though he was a prison guard, stood by me while I engaged in some very destructive behavior and while I was imprisoned. We had many disagreements but these did not impact on our love and respect for each other. He came to understand my drive to litigate on behalf of those imprisoned. I will miss him.

PREFACE AND ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

We thank all of the advocates and prisoners who have encouraged us to produce a new edition of the book, including our colleagues at the Prisoners' Rights Project of the New York City Legal Aid Society, especially Dori A. Lewis, who read and criticized large parts of the manuscript, and also Legal Aid's patient and resourceful librarian, Alla Reznik. Others who provided valuable assistance include Amy Roemer and Richard McHugh, two lawyers and friends; Elizabeth Alexander, formerly of the ACLU National Prison Project and now in private practice representing prisoners; Randall Berg III and Peter Siegel of the Florida Justice Institute; Betsy R. Ginsberg of Cardozo Law School and Deborah Golden of the D.C. Prisoners' Project of the Washington Lawyers' Committee for Civil Rights and Urban Affairs.
